FUSIONISTS BEATEN IN ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE ELECTION JUDGES

MANY $5,000 CONTRIBUTIONS TO DEMOCRATS

Committee Lists Expenditures Up-to-Date as $699,071.69

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The democratic national committee had expended $699,071.69 in the national campaign up to October 21, according to a report filed with the clerk of the house of representatives today by Wilbur Marsh, the committee treasurer.

Total receipts were placed at $877,934.87. This compared with total receipts of $2,468,019.64 and expenditures of $2,741,503.34 by the republican national committee as sworn to in a statement filed late yesterday by Treasurer Fred W. Upham.

Cox Gave $5,000. Governor Cox was listed as a subscriber to the democratic fund to the amount of $5,000. Other subscribers were Charles H. Crane, New York, and Thomas L. Chadbourne, Jr., New York, $5,000 each; Michael H. Blane, Chicago; Joseph E. Davies, Madison, Wis.; Thomas P. Ryan, and Nathan Strauss, of New York, $5,000 each; Vance C. McCormick, Harrisburg, Pa., $2,500.

The socialist party national campaign committee reported total contributions for the national campaign of $41,025.24 and disbursements of $48,478.88 up to October 21. The only contributions of more than $1,000 were from labor organizations.

Baruch Put Up. Other contributors to the democratic fund were H. M. Baruch, of New York, and Joseph E. Willard, ambassador to Spain, $5,000 each; W. N. Reynolds, Winston Salem, N. C., $2,000; H. Doherty, two contributions, the first of $5,000, and the second $1,500; Colonel E. M. House, Senator Glass, of Virginia, Secretary Colby and Norman E. Mack, $500 each; and Alton B. Parker, $100.

The democratic national congressional committee reported total receipts of $1,435.75, including $3,000 in loans and disbursements of $12,135.61. Among the contributors were Thomas P. Ryan, $5,000; and $2,500 advanced from the national committee.

Congressional Expenditures. Guy T. Scott, treasurer of the national republican congressional committee, also filed a report with the clerk today, showing contributions totaling $115,706. Among the larger contributions were: Anderson, Gratz, St. Louis; William H. Childs, New York; and Harry Hornblower, Boston, $5,000 each; Eugene Meyer, Jr., New York; and T. B. Walker, Minneapolis, $2,500 each.

The detailed report filed by the democratic national committee showed New York headquarters collected $427,284 and spent $444,122; the women's bureau collected $2,570 and disbursed $1,337; Chicago headquarters spent $43,375, and San Francisco headquarters collected only $1,563.50 while spending $12,830.

The largest contribution to the democratic fund, according to the treasurer's report, was $20,000 by H. A. Wroe, of Austin, Texas. The second largest was $10,000 by Benj. Franklin, of Carrollton, Pa., a former official of the federal fuel administration.

Men and Women With Courage Are Lining Up!

"Let us take care of Hubbellism when it arises as an issue."
—The Morning Journal, Aug. 15, 1920.

That's what Bernalillo county citizens, who want continuance of decent government in this county, are now doing.

Is the Journal with them or against them? On August 15 you said:

"If Mr. Hubbell attempts to dictate a county ticket and county organization... the Journal will be found antagonizing any such pretension."

Through his deal with Hanna, Hubbell has now dictated his ticket; having been permitted to do so in the name of Bernalillo county democrats, by Hanna, Chase & Co.

Moreover, Hanna has issued his order to Bernalillo county democrats that they must vote for this ticket, from top to bottom; and Hubbell is out with the old gang, putting up the old-time, Hubbell election organization to help drive over the Hanna-Hubbell ticket.

To date the Journal hasn't said one little word that could be construed into an effort to help meet this issue. The Journal hasn't made a move to antagonize it. The Journal promised to do both.

Have all the Journal's promises to this community to support good government, to fight corrupt bosses and to inspire high ideals of citizenship been pure bunk?

Does Hanna's command to Bernalillo county democrats to vote this Hanna-Hubbell ticket straight, tie your hands?

Has Seligman put his muzzle on you so that you cannot speak out against what you know is wrong and for what you know is right?

What does your innermost soul tell you about this Hanna-Hubbell deal?

What do the first bright rays of the Benign Sun of the Dawn of the New Day reveal to you as the prospect before your home community if Hanna's trade for a handful of votes puts Hubbell back into power?

Does not the odor from this deal in boss-owned votes rise as high as the dizzy editorial fence whereon you sit aloof?

Do you think that by keeping still you can help to hide the sordid details of this deal, by the terms of which Hanna has undertaken to command, or drive with the whip of party loyalty, democratic citizens of Bernalillo county to vote this Hubbell county ticket, in exchange for the 250 to 300 machine-made votes that Hubbell can deliver to Hanna?

Do you approve of that deal?

Are you obeying Hanna's order and are you lining up with his effort to deliver this county to Hubbell?

Are you in favor of restoring Bernalillo county to Hubbell's rule; and were you spouting your readers when you promised to help fight the effort everyone knew he would make to "come back" in this election?

Are you afraid to say where you stand?

Don't you know where you stand?

Or are you just wearing the Seligman muzzle? You are publishing daily propaganda written for you by Seligman's press bureau, or dictated to you by his press agent, attacking the character and integrity of men who have been at the forefront of industrial development, political progress and social advancement in this state for twenty-five years before you showed up.

But you are standing aside and keeping still while Seligman and Hanna and Ed Chase, in exchange for a pitiful little string of votes, undertake to force back into the control of your own home government the most sinister influence against development, clean politics and social advancement that ever fastened its grip on any community.

Men and women who stand for good government, clean citizenship and high ideals, and who are honest about it, are lining up, squarely and openly in this fight in which you promised to help them, should it arise.

The issue has arisen. The fight is on.

Will the first bright rays of the Benign Sun of the Dawn of the New Day tomorrow morning again reveal you, with your head tucked under the covers, afraid to peep?

MECHEM AND FALL SPEAK AT TULAROSA AND ALAMOGORDO

Senator Says Election of Harding Is Assured

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., Oct. 22.—Judge Mechem, Senator Fall and Hugh Williams addressed an audience of about 400 persons at the pavilion here yesterday afternoon. Last night the party went to Tularosa where they addressed a good sized crowd despite the fact that the meeting was advertised only a few hours in advance.

The afternoon meeting here was arranged on short notice because of the fact that the night meeting which was scheduled would have interfered with a regular number of a lyceum course.

The audience here was very attentive and there were many democrats in it. On account of this being the home of Edwin Mechem, brother of Judge Mechem, the city has more than an ordinary interest in the address of the republican nominee for governor and his address on state issues met a hearty response.

Senator Fall in his address dwelt almost entirely on national issues, particularly the league of nations. He said that so far as the national election was concerned it was all over but the shouting and that Senator Harding would be the next president. He said the people were decidedly against Mr. Wilson's league of nations.

Judge Mechem, Senator Fall and Mr. Williams left here at noon today for Las Cruces where they will speak tonight. Several small meetings were on the schedule enroute.

MAJOR SCANDLAND KILLED IN EAST

Man Who Killed John Hutchings Murdered in Washington

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 22.—Friends of Major Frank M. Scandland were positive today that he is the man found murdered in the outskirts of Washington, D. C., whose body was found badly mutilated after death had followed three days before police located the body.

Scandland was well known here in army circles. He was sentenced from eight to ten years in the penitentiary for killing John Hutchings, race track driver, last November. He was out on bond.

Cox Declares He Is Free Man; Would Obey Mandate for League

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Governor Cox of Ohio today told several hundred members of the Young American League Democratic league that, if elected president, he would devote his energy to accomplishing an industrial readjustment throughout the country.

One of the first steps in this direction, he said, would be appointment of "the highest class industrial engineer available in the country as a member of my cabinet."

Governor Cox said he was "absolutely free and unfettered by campaign promises—even in the matter of appointing fourth class postmasters."

OBREGON PLEASED WITH RECEPTION IN UNITED STATES

Believes Wilson Will Recognize New Government of Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 22.—General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of Mexico, returned from Dallas, Texas, yesterday afternoon and told interviewers he was impressed by the cordiality of the reception given him there. He declared he looked upon it as indicating a changed opinion toward Mexico on the part of Americans.

Asked why President Wilson had not recognized the new Mexican government, General Obregon replied: "President Wilson wants to know first what the policy of the new government will be. He has always acted with extreme caution in international affairs of this kind, and it is probable he has never intended to recognize the new government until absolutely convinced of its good intentions. The government is strong, popular and ready to comply with its international obligations, and I believe Mr. Wilson will have no objection to sanctioning recognition. I also believe that the people of the United States in close touch with us in commerce desire such recognition."

'No More Hubbell,' Declare People of Mountain Precincts

The people of the mountain precincts of Bernalillo county have adopted the slogan "no more Hubbell for us" as their campaign motto, according to Jesus Romero who has just returned from a trip through those precincts with a party of republican candidates.

RAILROAD MEN IN ENGLAND DEFER STRIKE ORDER

Industrial Crisis Temporarily Bridged; New Offer to Miners

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The industrial crisis was temporarily bridged late this afternoon when the striking coal miners accepted an invitation to meet the government for renewed discussion of the miners' demands, and the railroad men, at the request of the miners, postponed their sympathetic strike movement under which railway employees would have ceased work at midnight Sunday.

This sensational close of a day of the most intense anxiety came as the result of informal discussions during the morning participated in by representatives of the government, the coal mine owners and the miners' leaders, and a subsequent joint meeting of the national union of railwaymen and miners' executive bodies.

It was generally understood the government had drafted new proposals for adjustment of the miners' demands, which are more acceptable to the mine workers. In any event, the miners decided to accept the invitation to reopen discussions.

The miners' representatives will meet the government tomorrow morning.

U. S. AGENTS TO WATCH FOR FRAUDS

Election to Be Kept Clean, District Attorney Says

If the election laws in the various counties of New Mexico are not tied to the mark on November 2, it will not be the fault of United States District Attorney Sumners Burkhart or government agents under his direction.

District Attorney Burkhart announced today that an investigation of alleged contemplated frauds has been started, and that if any violators of the election laws regardless of party affiliations show their hand, they will be brought to justice.

In the past said Attorney Burkhart there have been schemes devised to keep people from voting and such schemes sprung at the last minute often gain their end.

"This year," he said, "the investigation being started in time to prevent schemes or plots, which may be in the making. Agents of the government are working under the direction of the district attorney's office in various parts of the state."

Mr. Burkhart said that the agents are to communicate with county chairmen and the latter may be asked to aid in any investigation which it may be deemed necessary to make.

Chicago Policemen Accused of Taking Bribe of Liquor Men

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Confidential police files concerning the alleged "whiskey ring" illicit traffic today were in the hands of the United States district attorney.

Additional developments today were orders issued by Chief of Police Garrity for the arrest of three policemen and a former policeman on a charge of soliciting a bribe from a saloon keeper; arrest of two deputy internal revenue collectors and two other men charged with taking "hush" money from a saloon keeper on whose premises they found liquor. Another policeman surrendered and was held to the federal grand jury. He was said to have been seen driving a truck loaded with whiskey.

Nine policemen previously were held to the federal grand jury in connection with the whiskey scandal. Police files were refused yesterday until an assistant district attorney gave Chief Garrity until 10 a. m. today to deliver them. Police men took them to the federal building.

Reserves of Clearing House Banks Show A Big Decrease

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Actual reserves of the clearing house banks this week show a decrease of $50,233,280, causing a deficit under legal requirements of $23,977,130, the largest reported this year and said to reflect the week's heavy transfer of funds in connection with federal payments and syndicate operations.

Other striking features of the bank statement included an actual decrease of $50,843,886 in loans and discounts, a decrease of almost $45,000,000 in reserves of members in the federal reserve bank and a decrease of $12,288,980 in net demand deposits.

Have you registered, men and women of Albuquerque? October 23 is the last day.

Warsaw Menaced, She 'Carried On'

NEW YORK—Mrs. W. Palmer Fuller, who was inspector for the American Relief Administration in the Warsaw district, has just returned to this country. Mrs. Fuller claimed 18 months of hard service in Poland by staying on the job when the Reds menaced the city in their recent drive for Warsaw. Her husband, Lieutenant Fuller of San Francisco, was Hoover's chief agent in Poland.

ASK INJUNCTION AGAINST PAVING

Petitioners Would Stop Work on West Tijeras Avenue

Petition for an injunction against the New Mexico Construction company to stop the paving operations on West Tijeras between First and Thirtieth streets was filed today in the district court by George E. Ellis and A. Fleischer, property owners along Tijeras avenue.

The petitioners claim that the paving is being done against the wishes of the property owners along Tijeras avenue who consider the contract price of $3.30 a square yard excessively high.

They allege that the contract is null and void, and illegal because no proper advertising for bids was made as required by law. They claim that the New Mexico Construction company was without competitors in the bidding for the contract and therefore was able to charge the price it saw fit. The original paving program of the city was changed, it is also claimed.

It is also charged that so called improvement laws of the state as regards municipal paving contains no provision for the protection of the property owner.

Mr. Fleischer appeared before the city commission after the contract had been made, but before actual paving had been begun, and protested against proceeding with the work. He declared that the price was exorbitant and that if the work were delayed for a considerable period prices of material and labor might go down an appreciable amount.

MINISTER KILLED BY ONE OF HIS TENANTS

Renter Says He Mistook Pastor for a Burglar

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The Rev. Frederick G. Ruff, pastor of the Methodist church, was shot and killed this morning by Fred W. Sexton, one of his tenants, who told police he mistook the minister for a burglar. He was arrested.

The Rev. Mr. Ruff was summoned before the council committee investigating rent profiteering several weeks ago on a complaint of his tenants. Recently the tenants have posted signs in their windows bearing the words, "Unfair Landlord."

COURT ORDER HALTS NAMING OF MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATS

Gutierrez and Metzger Foiled in Efforts to Betray Republicans

An effort of this fusionist majority of the county commission to appoint a democratic majority of the election judges in each precinct for the coming election was defeated this morning by a court order revoking their appointments. A hearing was held on the petition for a writ of mandamus asked against Max Gutierrez and David Metzger and Dr. M. K. Wylder to force them to choose judges from the party which elected them to the county commission. Dr. Wylder was made a party to the action although opposing the move of the fusionists.

The commission met this morning to choose the three election judges for each precinct. As prescribed by law the commissioners must choose two judges from the list of names submitted by the county chairman representing the majority party, namely the republicans since two or more commissioners belonged to that party. The remaining judge, the statute prescribes, is to be selected from the minority party.

Move Is Thwarted. Commissioners Gutierrez and Metzger, having recently switched from the republican party and joined forces with the democrats, claimed the right to choose the majority of the election judges from the ranks of the democrats. The list was so chosen.

C. M. Barber, as county chairman of the republican central committee and A. Matthei, candidate for sheriff, filed a petition in the district court for a writ of mandamus against the board of commissioners directing the county commissioners to cancel, revoke the appointments they legally made this morning and appoint two judges from the list submitted by the chairman of the republican committee.

After the court's decision granting the writ was given the commissioners immediately convened again and made arrangements to appoint the election judges as Judge Hickey had ruled. It was agreed to select the first two men on the republican list for each precinct and the first name on the corresponding democratic list. The revised list of judges for all precincts has not yet been completely completed.

Poling Places Chosen. The selection of the polling places, with a few exceptions in the city precincts, has been completed and will be printed officially Monday in connection with the election proclamation. The proclamation will be published six times consecutively.

The commissioners adjourned at 1:15 o'clock after an all morning session and will convene again at 2 o'clock this afternoon to arrange further details of the election.

District Attorney J. A. Miller and H. B. Jamison represented the plaintiffs, Mr. Barber and Mr. Matthei, Henry G. Coors, Jr., and John F. Rums, of the county commissioners. W. C. Geatrach, chairman of the democratic county central committee, was present at the hearing, fighting to get control of the judges.

What Law Provides. The law provides that where two or more of said commissioners belong to the same political party they shall have the right to select two of said judges for each precinct from the list of names submitted by the county chairman representing their political party, and the remaining judge shall be selected from a list submitted by the county chairman representing the opposite political party, and no more than two of said judges shall belong to the same political party.

The attorney for the plaintiffs contended that this was an act made to (Continued on page three.)
